1. In pursuance of Mr. Bissell's memorandum to Mr. Amory (reference C), I am calling a meeting of representatives of the addressees to represent their interests in the communications and reporting fields. This meeting will be held on Tuesday morning, 4 November, at 10 o'clock in 214 Administration Building (DCI conference room).

2. This first meeting will be devoted to discussing the specific problems and ideas which the representatives may wish to throw on the table. At this stage, this may be done either orally or in writing as preferred. It would be my thought that this group would then initially come to agreement on the definition of the problem or problems to which they can usefully address their efforts.

3. It would be appreciated if your office could inform my secretary, [REDACTED] prior to the meeting who will represent your office.
